

- Promote the recognition and respect of the rights and legal interests of Latvian tax payers.
- Promote a fair adaption of the tax regulating normative acts.
- Promote finance and tax related education in the society.
- Provide constructive collaboration among the society and state institutions.
- Stimulate improvements in the normative environment and the implementation of tax payers' obligations.
- Create and give advice for the projects of new and updated normative acts.
- Involve the society in the promotion and defense of their financial and tax rights.
- Contribute to the understanding of tax and finance matters in the society.
- Implement collaboration with non-government organizations representing the rights of tax payers internationally and in other countries.